

Workshop LOCAL FOOD SUPPLY SYSTEMS IN THE BALTIC SEA REGION

We invite you to strengthen local food value chains together

April 9, 2024, 9.30 a.m. to 14.15 p.m. EET

Vėžaičiai Branch Institute of Agriculture,
Lithuanian Research Centre for Agriculture and Forestry
Gargždų St. 29, Vėžaičiai, Klaipėda dist., Lithuania

Registration: <https://forms.gle/V4QMePzkJXCRRQxS8>

AGENDA

- 9.30–10.00 Registration (arrival, coffee)
- 10.00–10.10 Welcome speech.
Dr Ieva Mockevičienė, project coordinator at LAMMC,
Marja Boström, project manager (Hållbar Utveckling Skåne)
- 10.10–10.20 Introducing of the project partners
- 10.20–10.35 Challenges and opportunities of the Lithuanian agri-food sector.
Dr Ieva Mockevičienė, LAMMC
- 10.35–10.50 The influence of small and medium-sized enterprises on the regions of Lithuania.
Dalia Matukienė, "Center for Regional Economic Economy"
- 10.50–11.05 Food value, cost price, price, and impact of short food supply chains on people, nature, society.
Prof. Dr Dalius Serafinas, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, Vilnius University;
Lithuanian Scientific Society
- 11.05–12.00 Discussion (part I). Short food chains: from producer to consumer
- 12.00–13.00 Lunch
- 13.00–14.00 Discussion (part II). Sustainable food system: what is missing for a breakthrough?
- 14.00–14.15 Summary of the workshop

Contact person: Ieva Mockevičienė
Tel.: +370 690 25 462,
E-mail: ieva.mockeviciene@lammc.lt